

BRIDGING THE CATHOLIC CONSERVATIVE-LIBERAL DIVIDE:

CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVES

Thursday, September 12, 2019 • 5:30 - 7 pm
Franciscan Center Theater • 6832 Convent Blvd., Sylvania

This lecture will examine the differences between Catholics who think of themselves as more conservative or more liberal by considering the diverse ways that Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis have interpreted the Second Vatican Council. It will draw on fundamental teachings of Christ to show how all Catholics can find common ground.

$10 PRE-REGISTERED OR $15 AT THE DOOR

TO PRE-REGISTER: Leave a message referencing the lecture with your name and number of tickets requested at franciscanvillage@sistersosf.org or 419-824-3515
Tickets may be purchased in advance at www.sylvaniafranciscanvillage.org

SYLVANIA
FRANCISCAN VILLAGE

~ No charge for students ~

This lecture is part of a new series by Fr. Jim Bacik, "Bridging our Polarized Divisions: Drawing on Christian Wisdom." Lectures in this series are to focus on bridging the various divisions that threaten our society today by retrieving relevant insights from the Christian tradition.

Sylvania Franciscan Village Member Organizations

Sisters of St. Francis of Sylvania, Ohio • Lourdes University • Sylvania Franciscan Ministries